Gen. Eisenhower's Declaration Will Spur Candidates

Expect Real Campaign Activity To Develop Since Eisenhower Clears Atmosphere

VARIED VIEWS ON GENERAL'S ACTION

By WILLIAM THEIS
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—Republican leaders looked today for an eruption of real campaign activity behind announced candidates now that Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower has flatly declared himself out of the 1948 presidential race.

One leading Republican Senator said of Eisenhower's withdrawal from the GOP race:

"That lifts the cloud. Now the boys who may have been hesitating to go all-out for other candidates because of the Eisenhower threat will really get to work."

Official Washington generally regarded Eisenhower's statement that he is "not available for and could not accept" the GOP nomination as the real thing without any qualification. This view prevailed despite "draft Eisenhower" organization statements in New York, New Hampshire and California that they would continue to work for his nomination.

Steam Taken Out
Even though Eisenhower's name may still be entered in New Hampshire, California, Nebraska and other Presidential primaries, supporters in the Dewey, Taft and Stassen camps felt the "steam" had been taken out of the "like" movement.

Each of these announced candidate declined to comment on the surprise announcement. But political leaders of Capitol Hill, where the '48 handicap gets the closest scrutiny, appraised Eisenhower's withdrawal as a boost for the entire field of GOP candidates rather than as a boon for any one.

Warren's Attitude
In Sacramento, Gov. Earl Warren of California, also an announced candidate, refused to regard Eisenhower's refusal as a "withdrawal." Warren held that the job of President should be open to all—military man or civilian.

Former Gov. Alf. M. Landon, an Eisenhower booster and his party's 1936 Presidential nominee, had this to say from Topeka, Kans.:

"General Eisenhower has spoken. But still unanswered is whether the American people will accept his statement as their final decision."

Pa New Observes

With temperatures hugging the zero mark early last evening, local residents were expecting the cold night of the winter last night, but such proved not to be the case. The low temperature was one below zero, the U. S. weather observation at the pump station of the City of New Castle Water company reported this morning.

The temperature in East Brook hit 12 degrees below zero shortly before midnight last night, according to one resident of the community.

Apparently the predicted "much below zero" weather failed to reach this city overnight. Temperatures recorded were around zero for the most part.

A large cabin cruiser boat was attracting much attention on South Jefferson street Friday. The boat sport a large trailer, was being transported to warmer waters.

U.S. Not Committed To Military Phases Of Bevin's Proposal

By JOHN A. REICHMANN
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—Responsible sources declared today that the United States has not at present committed itself to participation in the military phases of the proposed alliance of Western European Powers.

Proposed By Bevin

The alliance, designed to set up a solid front of the western European democracies in the political, economic and military fields, was proposed by British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin. It was made a non-partisan British issue when it received the wholehearted endorsement of opposition Conservative leader Winston Churchill.

Bevin's proposal provided for the inclusion of the western European states of France, Belgium, Netherlands and Luxembourg in the Dunkirk pact. This agreement, between France and Britain, bound the two historic major European powers to avert another disaster such as arose from the development of the totalitarian state in Germany.

Although only the Benelux powers—Belgium, Netherlands and Luxembourg—were envisaged by Bevin as being immediate participants in what might become a confederation of western Europe, it was believed that other continental powers might join later.

The United States lost no time in endorsing Bevin's proposal. A statement from the State Department, issued with the full approval of President Truman and Secretary of State George C. Marshall, said that the United States "heartily welcomes" the initiative of Europe as thus shown in forging (Continued on Page Two)

Deadlocks Continue To Face United Nations

By PIERRE J. HUSS
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Jan. 24.—The United Nations has been confronted in the past twenty-four hours with three deadlocks apparently defying solutions because of the basic conflict between the east and west powers.

A closed meeting of the security council was informed perfunctorily that direct negotiations between Yugoslavia and Italy for an agreed candidate to the governorship of the free territory of Trieste had broken down and that further efforts were considered futile.

Rejected By Gromyko
Soviet Delegate Andrei Gromyko turned thumbs down on a request from the U. N. Korean group to visit the Russian commander in northern Korea.

The U. N. Balkan group reported to Lake Success from Salonica that neither Yugoslavia, Albania nor Bulgaria had given recognition to that body or allowed it to cross the borders. On the contrary, the re-

Friction Over Plan Of France

Report U. S. May Be Asked To Mediate Anglo-French Franc Devaluation Dispute

LONDON, Jan. 24.—(INS)—Reports that the United States may be called upon to mediate Anglo-French friction over devaluation of the franc, overshadowed comment in London today on the new foreign policy announced by Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin.

Observers viewed the British-French dispute as a potential threat to the success of the western European bloc called for by Bevin.

Feeling both for and against the French move is stubborn and strong in London, and it is felt that an impartial mediator is needed if lasting damage to Anglo-French accord is to be prevented. Meanwhile, official British quarters urged that over-rosy expectations of a quick-western-European confederation be avoided.

They pointed out that it will take considerable time to conclude actual treaties.

Heaviest Snow Of Winter Makes Traveling Conditions Bad In County

With over three inches of snow falling this morning, and with no sign of a let-up early this afternoon, indications pointed to bad road traveling conditions in the local district.

The snow had already proven the heaviest of the winter, and motorists were having a difficult time getting about unless cars were equipped with chains.

He has given his wife's cooling of affection as the motive for the shooting.

French Cabinet Reaches Agreement On Measures For Currency Regulation

By ROBERT PARKER
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

PARIS, Jan. 24.—The French cabinet reached full agreement today on measures for currency regulation expected to result in devaluation of the franc.

There were no details of the agreement. But a bill was drafted and will be presented to the national assembly on Monday.

Meanwhile, negotiations continued with the British exchequer and the international monetary fund.

On the basis of a plan submitted by Finance Minister Rene Mayer, the government agreed upon measures permitting regulated gold and foreign exchange markets.

St. Lawrence Battle To Open

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—(INS)—A long and bitter battle flared up today as the Senate prepared to open debate Monday on the controversial St. Lawrence Seaway bill.

Vigorous floor fights were indicated by the split in the foreign relations committee where four members opposed the project.

Opponents challenged the army's estimates that the remaining work on the project will cost the United States $310,274,000 and Canada $144,812,000.

Senate Majority Leader White, of Maine, asserted that the army figure was "based in part" on 1939-40 estimates and that the actual cost will be some 35 per cent higher.

Three other powerful foreign relations committee members, Sens. Lodge (R) Mass., Connally (D) Texas, and George (D) Ga., joined White in opposing the majority action approving the project.

In a separate report White also challenged approval of the project as an international agreement rather than as a treaty, which would require approval by two-thirds of the Senate.

Final Drive Is Being Made For Hospital Fund

Campaign Workers Go "All-Out" Today In Effort To Exceed Goal Monday Night

REPORTS ON FRIDAY SHOW $13,274 NEEDED

Leaders and workers in the Jameson Memorial hospital expansion fund appeal went all out today to raise the remaining $13,274 needed to reach the minimum goal of $750,000 by Monday night.

Expressing confidence that the goal will be reached and exceeded, L. B. Round, chairman of the general campaign, called upon everyone who has not yet subscribed "to make your investment in health protection now."

"If we can go over the top in this campaign, we will have that much more funds to do the job of providing not only adequate hospital facilities, but the finest available," he said.

He urged workers to make the best possible use of every hour remaining between now and Monday night, when the closing dinner will be held at 6:15 in The Castleton hotel.

Report On Friday
The third report meeting of the general campaign at noon on Friday saw an additional $49,905.74 subscribed, bringing the total to date to $736,752.29, or 97 per cent. Large report was again made (Continued on Page Two)

Democrats Will Seek To Present Solid Tax Front

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—(INS)—Democratic leaders strove today to present a united front in the house against the Republican tax bill, but indications were they would not be successful.

A general meeting of house Democrats was called for next Wednesday to discuss the Knutson bill, which is slated to be called up on the floor for debate the following day.

Rep. Rayburn (D) Tex., minority leader and former speaker, declared no attempt would be made to bind members individually on tax reduction. He stated:

To Discuss Knutson Bill
"We are going to discuss the Knutson bill. We are just going to show how nefarious, dishonest and contemptible the character of the Knutson bill is." Rayburn added:

The treasury under any tax bill passed this year should not have its revenue reduced by any substantial amount. I think this. The prudent man will pay his debts while he has money.

"While this prosperity is going on, without hurting anyone, we could reduce the nation's debt by a substantial amount."

Passage of the Knutson bill is regarded as assured in the house, probably Feb. 2 or 3.

Rep. Knutson (R) Minn., estimates that his measure will cost the government from six billion to six billion three hundred million dollars during the current calendar year. A movement is underway in the senate to slash the amount to perhaps four billions.

Says Daughter And Michael To Be Married

DAVOS, Jan. 24.—(INS)—Princess Margrethe, mother of Princess Ann of Bourbon Parma, said today that her daughter and ex-King Michael of Romania eventually will be married.

"As yet there is no date set for the betrothal," she told an International News Service correspondent, "but, of course, we are very confident that everything will come to a good end."

The princess said that "interest shown by the American people in this romance is a source of great gratification to the young couple and their families."

But, she added, before a betrothal is arranged, "there are a lot of things to be settled yet."

Anne and Michael, meanwhile, enjoyed a happy day skiing on the slopes of this Alpine winter resort. They spent part of the day motor-ing in one of the jeeps Michael brought from Romania.

"Mose" Is Booster In Hospital Drive

One of the biggest "boosters" for the Jameson Memorial hospital expansion fund appeal today, Mose will be 88 years old in May, and for the 68 years he has lived at the mill, he started out working there, when the mill was in operation. Now he says that he "wouldn't want to be any place else."

He was born into slavery near Winston-Salem, North Carolina, where he was owned by a Dr. Wharton, whose name Mose took, a common practice among slaves before the Civil War brought them their freedom.

Despit his years, he still is active and spends his afternoons traveling around to neighboring farms to lend a hand. In fact, his 88 years don't mean a thing when it comes to family seniority—for he has an older brother!

That knecap healed up nicely as a result of his weeks in Jameson Memorial, and Mose caught the spirit of the expansion fund appeal early by urging everyone to do their share. He speaks from experience when he talks about the need for hospital protection!

Coast Guard Plane Missing

Search Under Way For Plane In Baltimore Area, Lost In Storm

BALTIMORE, Jan. 24.—(INS)—A search is underway today for a two-engine coast guard plane which has been missing since it sped across Baltimore harbor in a blinding snow storm.

State police, harbor police and coast guard vessels are hunting the plane, usually used by Secretary of the Treasurer John W. Snyder on his official flights.

First reports said there was a crew of two on the missing craft. It was last heard from when the plane zoomed only a few feet over an 85,000-gallon gasoline tank on the edge of Baltimore harbor.

The plane was enroute from New York to Washington but was unable to land at the National airport because of a blizzard in the Washington section.

Heading West
It was reported that shortly after this a ship in the harbor sounded a distress signal.

State police said that in his last radio contact with the airport the pilot said he was going to "head west."

UPPER MIDWEST REPORTS SUB-ZERO

Pauley Assails Statements By Harold Stassen

By FRANK ALLEN
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—(INS)—Edwin W. O. Pauley today assailed Harold E. Stassen of "ignorance and falsehood in pursuit of his own selfish ambitions" in the Stassen "crusade" against grain speculators.

Pauley took the witness stand at the Senate investigation into commodity trading and blasted at Stassen's charges that he made a million dollars on the basis of inside information.

The California millionaire declared he had been seriously and perhaps irreparably harmed by Stassen's falsehoods and unfounded charges.

As he assailed the charges of the GOP Presidential aspirant, Pauley asserted:

"I charge that he has combined ignorance and falsehood to indict men solely in the pursuit of his own selfish ambitions."

British Embassy Official Accused In Soviet Court

MOSCOW, Jan. 24.—(INS)—A British embassy official was charged by the Soviet government today with black-marketing in Moscow.

The people's court was told that Ian Samson, second secretary of the British embassy, sold cloth, illegally brought into Russia, at prices exceeding legal Russian rates.

Since Samson enjoys diplomatic immunity, the court notified the foreign office of the charges.

Report Rebellion Is Now Flaring In Southern Ukraine

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—(INS)—A high Chinese official was quoted in a Nanking dispatch to the Hearst newspapers today as saying that "the first large rebellion in the history of the Soviet Union is flaring in the southern Ukraine."

Veteran Newspaper Correspondent Ray Richards reported the minister of party organization in the National government told him more than one-and-a-half million "anti-Moscow Insurrectionists" are involved.

The minister, Chen Li Fu, was further quoted as saying a big guerrilla force supported by the southern Ukraine population is trying to enlist aid of veterans from other Soviet states in an "All-Russia-revolution."

Gun Wielder On Train Wounds Two, Jailed At Ambridge

Young Cleveland Mother And Trainman Wounded As Young Man Terrorizes Passengers

AMBRIDGE, Pa., Jan. 24.—(INS)—A young Cleveland mother and a trainman were recovering in a hospital today after being shot by a Negro who terrorized passengers on a speeding Pennsylvania railroad passenger train early this morning.

Police said the shooting was done by Kenneth Short, 27, of Cleveland, with a .25 automatic pistol after he had held the gun in the back of a Pittsburgh man for nearly an hour.

The wounded were Mrs. Mary Riffler, 29, of Cleveland, shot in the thigh, and Ira M. Crider, 53, of Freedom, Pa., flagman on the "Buckeye Limited," fast Cleveland-Pittsburgh train.

Man Overpowered Crider and other passengers succeeded in overpowering Short when the gun jammed.

Witnesses said the shooting started after G. E. Walker, 45, of Pittsburgh, had sat motionless for more than 45 minutes while Short held the gun against his ribs. Police were told that he suddenly whirled and fired into the seat back of them, the shot going wild.

Crider lunged for the youth, and was shot in the leg. As the wounded railroad man tried to grab him, Short fired again, and the bullet struck Mrs. Riffler, who was sitting with her daughter, Anna, 12.

Then the gun jammed. The train was stopped at Ambridge, and Short was jailed on a charge of felonious assault and battery with intent to kill.

Mrs. Riffler and Crider were reported in "good" condition at Sewickley Valley hospital today.

Mr. and Mrs. James D. Cross of 312 Fern street have returned, after three weeks visit at Mt. Clemens, Mich. Mr. Cross reports that he is feeling in good shape again.

Kidnap-Slayer Is Convicted

Attorneys Will Appeal Conviction Of Paul J. Schneider In Akron, Colo.

AKRON, Colo., Jan. 24.—(INS)—Paul J. Schneider, 22, of Hubbard, Ore., today faced the death penalty for the kidnap-slaying of Frank J. Ford, 47, Denver service station operator.

A district court jury at Akron last night found Schneider guilty. The verdict makes the death sentence mandatory.

The defense was granted 20 days in which to file motion for a new trial. Schneider's attorneys said they would seek a new trial on grounds that Schneider's alleged confession of having killed two Detroit service station operators should not have been admitted as evidence.

Out Over Four Hours The jury was out only four hours and 40 minutes.

Ford's body was found in a field near Akron almost a month after his disappearance from Denver last September 20. Its discovery came after Schneider was arrested at Pikeville, Ky.

Schneider's trial began Monday. It ended abruptly yesterday afternoon when the defense rested after calling only two witnesses. These were Schneider's brother, Edward, and his sister, Mrs. Gilbert Haynes, both of Sheverson, Ore. They told of head injuries Schneider suffered when a child.

GEN. EISENHOWER'S DECLARATION WILL SPUR CANDIDATES

Eisenhower's statement as "the nearest thing we've ever had to General Sherman's refusal... I think we should take it as a definite refusal."

The retiring army chief of staff, who has accepted the post of President of Columbia University, revealed his decision in an 800-word letter to Leonard V. Finder, publisher of the Manchester (N. H.) Union Leader. In it, he concluded: "My decision to remove myself completely from the political scene is definite and positive. I know you will not object to my making this letter public to inform all interested persons that I could not accept nomination even under the remote circumstances that it were tendered me."

Eisenhower said it was his "conviction" that subordination of the military to civil power will be "best sustained" when life-long professional soldiers in the absence of some obvious and overriding reason, abstain from seeking high political office."

On the Democratic side, administration supporters privately viewed the Eisenhower "take-out" as a break for President Truman. The General, they noted, has led other Republican candidates in recent polls sampling the vote-getting power of opponents to Mr. Truman.

However, well informed sources said this was not the case. At present, they said, the United States is merely watching the development and endorsing it as a counter force to the Soviet expansionism at which the proposed alliance was aimed.

Temperatures Abating Temperatures are abating somewhat in Minnesota, where yesterday's low readings were reported, but it still is 13 below at Pembina, Minn., and 14 below at Lacrosse, Wis.

Rising temperatures are forecast for the north central states today and tomorrow, but light snow is expected in the extreme western sections of Minnesota and Iowa, extending to the Great Lakes area.

Rockford, Ill., reported 8 below at midnight and South Bend, Ind., 5 below. It was only 8 above this morning in Chicago which yesterday experienced a local snowstorm that blanketed a large section of the city and tied up traffic.

Drought In California While most of the nation is shivering, California's most serious winter drought in 70 years remains unbroken with record high temperatures prevailing throughout the state.

Agricultural experts are alarmed at the falling underground water tables in California, and prayers for rain still are being offered in many areas. State forestry department officials are seeking to reactivate the wartime civic disaster and fire prevention committees in the 13th month of the drought.

No rain is in sight for parched California, and farmers in southern areas fear the next two weeks will be a critical time for grain crops. Continued drought will force two extra irrigations with the cost to farmers estimated at five million dollars. Cattlemen fear heavy losses as the result of parched grazing land.

COLD WAVE IS NOW SPREADING TO DEEP SOUTH

there is at Burlington, Vt., which reported 17 below at 5 a. m., a rise of one degree since midnight.

Other New England cold spots are Caribou, Me., 15 below, and Bangor, Me., 11 below.

Snow In New Orleans For the first time in 13 years light snow fell last night and this morning in New Orleans, and freezing temperatures are reported in extreme northwest Florida.

Sub-freezing temperatures prevail as far south as Texas. San Antonio, in the extreme south of Texas, reported 29 above.

Snow is falling again today at Bowling Green, Ky., which yesterday reported a fall of five inches.

Coal and fuel oil shortages are developing in Indiana, Chicago and the nation's capital at Washington. District of Columbia commissioners are preparing to ask a 15 percent cut in fuel oil deliveries to consumers.

In Indiana, Mayor Al Feeney of Indianapolis is preparing to appoint a committee to deal with a shortage of coal and fuel oil caused by transportation difficulties due to the storm.

Temperatures Abating Temperatures are abating somewhat in Minnesota, where yesterday's low readings were reported, but it still is 13 below at Pembina, Minn., and 14 below at Lacrosse, Wis.

Rising temperatures are forecast for the north central states today and tomorrow, but light snow is expected in the extreme western sections of Minnesota and Iowa, extending to the Great Lakes area.

Rockford, Ill., reported 8 below at midnight and South Bend, Ind., 5 below. It was only 8 above this morning in Chicago which yesterday experienced a local snowstorm that blanketed a large section of the city and tied up traffic.

Drought In California While most of the nation is shivering, California's most serious winter drought in 70 years remains unbroken with record high temperatures prevailing throughout the state.

Agricultural experts are alarmed at the falling underground water tables in California, and prayers for rain still are being offered in many areas. State forestry department officials are seeking to reactivate the wartime civic disaster and fire prevention committees in the 13th month of the drought.

No rain is in sight for parched California, and farmers in southern areas fear the next two weeks will be a critical time for grain crops. Continued drought will force two extra irrigations with the cost to farmers estimated at five million dollars. Cattlemen fear heavy losses as the result of parched grazing land.

port added, the three had signed a pact to bar the U. N. group.

In each instance, the conflicting viewpoints and policies between the east and west—specifically between Soviet Russia and the U. S. have raised barriers to any practical solution by the security council or the "little assembly".

A case in point is the year-long inability of the 11-nation council to agree on a candidate for the governorship of Trieste.

Refuse Permission In the Korean situation, Gromyko reaffirmed his disdain for the U. N. commission by bluntly informing the secretariat that permission will not be granted the group to enter northern Korea.

During the general assembly, the Soviet bloc fought savagely to prevent the appointment of such a commission for the organizing of a free election and independent Korea.

Russia asked the United States to agree to a simultaneous evacuation of Russian troops from northern Korea and American troops from southern Korea, without bringing the U. N. into it.

U. S. sources continue to maintain that Russia has armed and organized some 150,000 Communist troops in the north, capable of staging a coup and establishing a Communist regime soon after the occupation troops leave.

In View Of News Of The World

By J. C. Ostreicher, INS Foreign Director

One of the most ambitious projects ever undertaken by Great Britain in peacetime since Victoria built the empire in part on a foundation of deserts, jungles, backwardness and poverty was in the making today.

Nominally, it is simply a confederation of western European states as outlined by British Foreign Secretary Bevin.

But underlying the surface announcement is a breath-taking scheme of truly monumental scope, and once again Britain has shown that she is most enterprising and constructive in time of danger.

Real Danger Seen

Bevin made clear that a very real danger lies in Soviet Russia's ruthless expansionism, her stubborn refusal to cooperate with the west and her initiative blustering that has recreated the atmosphere in which Adolf Hitler and Benito Mussolini strutted and shouted their way to doom.

He feels that the western nations are all cognizant of this danger, proposes an airtight political and economic unity among them. What is more important, he urges later participation by all the friends of democracy, meaning of course all anti-totalitarian elements in the United States and throughout the world.

Significant Factors

There were two interrelated factors of high significance in Bevin's historic address.

These were his admission of Italy as a common partner in the bloc on a basis of complete parity and his pointed reference to collaboration by the Middle East.

In this combination there are broad hints of Italy's future return to the status of a colonial empire. Chief opposition to such a proposal will come from Soviet Russia, but quite obviously that no longer matters nor will Russian objections to western European measures be regarded seriously until she changes her own attitude.

Have Great Wealth

By starting with Italy and the so-called Benelux nations of Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg, Britain and France are being realistic.

Belgium and Holland still have great wealth, at home and in the colonies, while Luxembourg always has been the "Fort Knox" of Europe—cramped to the caves and rafters with international stocks, bonds and solid gold.

And despite all idealistic concepts, this remains a world in which few ears are insulated against the ring of a golden coin or the crisp crackling of banknotes.

Bevin's point seems to be that Russia made the breach and seeks consistently to widen it.

Thus the west will have a bloc of its own. And its doors will be open to all applicants who need to do no more than park their pistols at the door and contribute what they can to peace and prosperity.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

MILK IS A HEALTHFUL FOOD

The best and most economical food for the entire family is milk. While its price has risen along with other foods, the advance in price of fluid milk has been considerably smaller than for "other foods," according to government reports.

There is no waste in milk as every drop can be used. A quart of milk—4 glasses—approximates the following daily nutritive requirements of an average man: calcium 100%, riboflavin 82%, phosphorus 67%, protein 49%, vitamin A 30%, thiamin 22%, calories 22%, vitamin C 19%, niacin 6%, iron 3%.

Grain Scarcity

In these days of grain scarcity milk returns more human food value per bushel of feed used in production than does any livestock or livestock product.

More than 60 million quarts of fresh milk and cream are now being used daily by the people of the United States, a larger amount than at any time before the war. The average person consumes 16½ more milk now than before Pearl Harbor, milk being more than a quarter of his entire food.

Annual Production

In this country today 57 billion quarts of milk are produced annually by 26 million cows on three-quarters of the Nation's farms. Half of this milk is used as milk and cream; the other half for butter, cheese, ice cream and numerous other products. Incidentally, one out of every fifteen families in the United States make their livelihood from milk. The farm cash income from milk is larger than from cattle or hogs; two and a half times that from wheat or cotton; one and a half times that from poultry and eggs; four times that from tobacco.

For the health and wealth of our country far more milk should be consumed. The milk budget for many families is not nearly large enough. One big reason is the lack of sufficient education on the relative cost and nutritive values of foods.

Farm Families

A great many farm families skimp on milk so they can sell more milk for cash. Then they buy more costly and less nutritive foods with this cash. All adults need at least a quart of this food in their diet, not to mention the needs of children. Many children and adults would be healthier and would live longer if they drank enough milk. Some adults consume practically no milk and a few, no butter, never having learned to enjoy them in early childhood.

Thousands of children offered plenty of milk don't choose it and many of them won't when they are grown. Cause? Lack of skill and wisdom in parents at cultivating in the growing child a healthy appetite. My bulletin, "Eating Problems: Their Prevention and Correction," may be had in a stamped envelope by writing me at 235 East 45th street, New York, N. Y.

State Police Say:

Are your windshield wipers and defrosters in good working order for winter driving? The law requires that every windshield shall be equipped with a device for cleaning rain, snow or other moisture from the windshield, and shall be maintained in good working order at all times. An adequate defrosting device certainly is essential to safe winter driving. Obstructed or distorted visibility is bad enough at any time and is much worse during freezing rain or snow.

One advantage of moving is that it gives you a chance to throw away a good many things which you wonder why you ever saved.—Enid, Okla., News.

Marshall Plan Action May Hinge On Results In Greece

(Special to Central Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—Belief is growing in Washington that congressional action on the Marshall Plan may well hinge on the outcome of the fast-developing crisis in Greece.

Foreign policy observers think that congressional foes of the long-range European recovery program will use any adverse developments in Greece to sustain their position that the Marshall program will not achieve its aim of rescuing Europe from its post-war economic and political plight.

There is growing fear in official circles that any sizeable increase in Greek guerrilla influence will place President Truman in the dilemma of either admitting failure in the keystone of his foreign policy—using dollars to fight Communism—or being forced to send troops.

In the opinion of many observers either move might well prove fatal to the president's White House aspirations during this election year.

If the experts see the picture, Communist ascendancy in Greece would give Marshall Plan opponents the effective arguments that United States dollars for European recovery are, in effect, "Operation Ratschke."

If Greek developments should swing Mr. Truman around to considering United States armed intervention, then the Henry Wallace faction, GOP non-interventionists, and even conservative elements in the Democratic party undoubtedly would view the move as a long step toward declared armed conflict. They would condemn it roundly in voices uttered separately, but with a single view.

Diplomatic observers believe that the appointment of Charles W. Thayer as head of the State department's "Voice of America" foreign broadcasts presages intensification of the news program directed toward Russia.

Thayer, a West Point graduate, speaks some five languages fluently, including Russian, and has a reading knowledge of several others.

During the war and post-war period he served in Europe and did liaison work with the Soviets. Diplomatic sources consider him well qualified for his new post.

The United States Air Force and the Justice department are pressing investigation of an aviation magazine which disclosed secrets

Hints On Etiquette

At a dancing party where "cutting in" is not practiced, it is a girl's privilege to stop dancing whenever she feels like it. The man, however, is supposed to dance until the girl stops or the music ceases.

Higher prices undoubtedly have been a factor in reducing savings, although the advance in wages has kept pace even though with living costs to make savings feasible for those so inclined. The Commerce figures suggest that the era of thrift imposed by war conditions is giving way to an era of more or less indulgence. Even abnormally high prices seem little deterrent to those who have the money to buy what they want and need.

The trend, needless to say, is anything but healthy. Doubled national income means little if only a trifling percent of it is laid away for a possible rainy day.

Must Master Domestic Crisis

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—Thoughtful men agree that the dangers threatening this country from within are greater than any that threaten us from without. There is also general accord that a basic essential for the economic recovery of Europe through the Marshall plan is to meet and master the domestic crisis caused by an alarming inflation coupled with a debt of unprecedented proportions and a Federal Government the size and cost of which is out of all reason.

THIS combination creates a situation too grave to exaggerate. Yet, it is conceded, that with determination and sense it can be successfully dealt with. Unhappily, it seems clear that these qualities are not going to be used by those clothed with power and responsibility. On the contrary, their course promises to continue lacking, in candor, in courage and in reason.

THE best evidence of this is the reception accorded the recent recommendations of Mr. B. M. Baruch. Asked for his advice by the Senate committee, and favoring the Marshall plan, Mr. Baruch laid down a program to check inflation, reduce the debt and recapture control of our fiscal affairs. He recalled that inflation started in the country when back in 1942 the OPA, disregarding his warning attempted to control prices without controlling wages—a manifest impossibility. He did not recall—though he had every right to do so—the undeniable fact that if his advice for a single directing head of the War Production Board had been taken when given instead of delaying eighteen months until the silly Roosevelt scheme of a dual head—Knutson and Hillman—had bogged down—we would have had a shorter war and saved lives as well as millions.

AMONG other things, Mr. Baruch urged that through legislation, direct and voluntary self-discipline farmers be induced to accept reduction in food prices in exchange for the guarantee of an assured price for their crops for the next three years; that in return for this food price rollback, labor abandon all strikes and wage demands and accept stabilization of wages for three years; that industry accept a 50 per cent restoration of the excess-profits tax, with wartime amortization for new plants and expansion; that all tax reduction be postponed two years after which a five-year orderly reduction, coupled with substantial lowering of the national debt, which is a "terrible threat to our security," be effected; that all unessential Federal, state and municipal works be postponed.

THERE, of course, was more to the Baruch recommendations than this. But the ones above suggested are the principal proposals for rescuing this nation from its concededly perilous position, giving it the strength needed to extend adequate aid to Europe without wrecking ourselves. Privately, almost every candid man in Washington agrees they are not only practical but necessary. There is nothing new nor startling about them. So far as taxes are concerned, Mr. Baruch merely repeats what he said two years ago when, despite warning, the Truman Administration entirely wiped out the excess-profits tax, which not only cut hugely into revenue which could have been used to reduce the debt but started the first wave of wage demands that sent prices spiraling again.

EVEN if these suggestions had not been made by a man with an impressive record for being right and who obviously has no personal axe to grind, their essential soundness ought to be enough to insure action in face of the crisis. However, there will be no action. Mr. Baruch's program not only will not go through as an entirely but no part of it will go through. As during the war, the advice he was asked to give will not be taken. Nothing he has suggested will be done—quite the reverse. One does not have to search far for the reason. One word is enough to tell the story—politics. This is the presidential year and there is no leadership in either party sufficiently high-minded and unselfish to risk offending any of the great groups of voters whom Mr. Baruch's plan, in their own interests, calls upon for sacrifice and self-restraint.

NINE months before an election and there isn't the courage in either White House or Congress to make a vital fight for the safety of the nation as a whole against the selfish insistence of the organized groups on their "rights." The Republicans say that no steps such as Mr. Baruch proposes can be taken until there is a Republican President in the White House who will co-operate with a Republican Congress. The Democrats say nothing can be done so long as a Republican Congress refuses everything the Democratic President asks.

NEITHER is telling the truth. The truth is that for purely partisan and political reasons both are headed in the exact opposite to the direction Mr. Baruch urges them to go and in which the intelligent among them know they should be going. Thus, there exists a deeply discouraging state of affairs which presents a deplorable indictment of our political system and the quality of our national leadership. If the system is to be saved, a political miracle must occur. If the Lord loves us, He will raise up a real leader.

GARDENS AND CANS

Flower gardens are good for a community. Pretty flowers cheer us and help to keep up our morale. Vegetable gardens are good too. Fresh carrots and lettuce and tomatoes taste good. They add to the pleasure of eating and the joy of living.

Canning takes care of the surplus. The canned vegetables taste good in the winter time. There is need to be cautious in the use of home canned vegetables. Bland vegetables such as beans or corn should always be heated just before eating. Sometimes poisons are formed in the can. These poisons are made harmless by heating or cooking. The canned stuff should not even be tasted before it is heated.

Rural Child Welfare Division Director Miss Helen Hubbell Addresses Group

Steering committee of the Lawrence County Child Care Study met Friday evening in the Red Cross rooms with Miss Helen Hubbell, director of the Rural Child Welfare division, department of welfare.

Dr. Wilbur E. Flannery presided and Miss Hubbell, introduced by Mrs. John E. Elliott, talked on the provisions of the child care program as set up under the Rural Child Welfare Division.

It is one that looks out for the care and interests of "the most helpless group of our population," she explained, the children, who due to circumstances, must be placed away from their homes. Miss Hubbell explained the program clearly and in detail, including figures of cost in others of the 15 counties of the state where the program is in effect, and at the close answered many questions from those present.

On the steering committee are representatives of the League of Women Voters, the Ministerial Association, the Lawrence County Catholic Welfare Conference, the Margaret Henry Home board, the department of public assistance, teachers, civic organizations, and welfare agencies.

Among those present were County Commissioners Harvey B. Bush and Joseph Gilmore, Judge W. W. Braham, and Probation Officer Jack Dunlap.

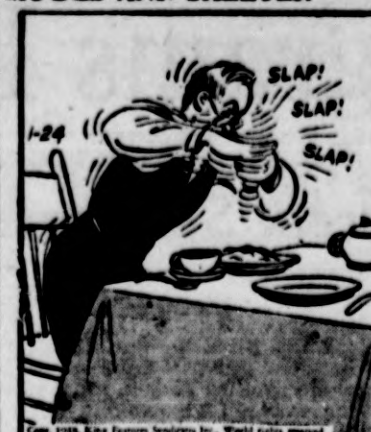

In conclusion it was voted, on motion by Dr. R. F. Galbreath and seconded by Miss Grace McCabe that: (1) the chairman appoint a committee to inform the public of the need in Lawrence County for a child care program, and (2) the chairman appoint a committee to gather additional information in regard to the need for such a program here and that the steering committee meet again on Monday, March 1.

MUGGS AND SKEETER

BY WALLY BISHOP

Around Hollywood

By JOHN TODD

International News Service Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 24.—(INS)—Even after all the years, Hollywood still can make Dick Powell dizzy.

Dick has just begun "The Pitfall" for Sam Bischoff and he's so tightly booked at various studios he can barely see daylight between pictures for 15 long months ahead.

Dick can remember when things were different. It was eight years ago, when he was Warner's top singing star that he arranged to cancel his contract because he "thought that most of the musical comedy plots were just plain silly."

They Laughed

He wanted to do some dramatic acting, heavy stuff, rough stuff, but everybody laughed at him. Finally he talked RKO into letting him play the tough detective, Philip Marlowe, in "Murder, My Sweet."

He was sensational and from that day to this Dick has been in demand all the time all over town. Dick and I were talking in his dressing room about those hectic days when Hollywood wouldn't believe that a celebrated "crooner" could do a tough role.

Names Changed

But, it turns out that Hollywood hasn't changed at all. Dick explained: "I'd like to sing a song in a picture. I don't mean I'd like to do a musical comedy because I wouldn't. I'd just like to sing one song in a picture in a spot where a song would be suitable.

"Do you know what? I can't find anyone in town who will let me do it!"

BILLY STEALS SCENES

Two young men, Jackie Coogan and Jackie Cooper, who as children were the greatest scene "stealers" in movie history, are having the tables turned on them.

Performing this neat little trick in their second Monogram Picture together, "Kilroy on Deck," is a newcomer, Billy Dambrosia, exactly five years and two months old. He is the discovery of lovely Lynn Bari, wife of Sid Luft, producer of the picture.

Waste of Time

I was on the set talking to Coogan while Cooper worked with the youngster. When the latter joined us, he said:

"It's just a waste of time being in the scene when that youngster is there. He's the whole show. He gets all the attention."

Coogan added:

"You said it. He sure cops the scene. Young Billy, in his first movie effort, is certainly being complimented by two experts who know the ropes.

SAFETY RHYMES

NEW YORK (INS) — Mother Goose will be out to get the Simple Simons of the highways in 1948 in the newest edition of a traffic safety campaign to be conducted in newspapers throughout the country. The educational campaign is a return engagement of a program which helped save an estimated 4,000 persons from violent death in 1947. Where Mother Goose enters the scene is in a series of five-column advertisements which point out the leading hazards to drivers and pedestrians and urge care while traveling on the streets and highways. Tom the Piper's

Son, Bo Peep, Jack Horner, Humpty Dumpty and several others of the rhyme-renowned family will appear in them.

SAFETY! Safety! SAFETY! Nothing Is More Important!

Safety isn't just a slogan or a sentimental touch with truck operators. It's a practical thing, a matter of business, a matter of saving life and limb.

The truck is important of course. It's a part of the operator's equipment. The cargo is important also. It represents a lot of money and a lot of valuable material.

But the most important of all is the life and limb of the driver and the drivers of other vehicles on the highway. Insurance can't bring a life back, insurance can't ease the pain of broken bones, it can't give some youngster back his daddy.

Won't you do your part to assist the truck operators in making the highways safer? Safety pays big dividends.

NOT MUCH TIME LEFT

If you haven't helped with the Jameson Hospital campaign, do it now. The campaign will soon be over.

Tankers To Give Fuel Oil Relief
To Eastern StatesBy WILLIAM KERWIN
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—(INS)—Some relief for the fuel oil starved east coast was promised Thursday when an industry spokesman disclosed that the Maritime Commission was assigning a fleet of tankers to that area.

Walter M. Hallanan told a meeting of the National Petroleum Council that by Feb. 15 the Maritime Commission will have added 40 tankers to the east coast since last November.

Hallanan, who was re-elected chairman of the industry advisory group, said that 16 T-2 type vessels already have been turned over from Maritime's "laid up fleet."

Will Add More Ships

Twenty-four more ships are expected to be added by mid-February.

Hallanan said that the ships will provide "great relief" to the shortage area and he regarded the commission's action as "highly important."

Meanwhile, the council which is meeting to work out plans for combating the fuel oil shortage gripping 26 states, heard that the industry is planning a two million, 150 thousand dollar publicity campaign to inform consumers of the oil scarcity.

John M. Lovejoy, chairman of the National Petroleum Institute's public relations committee, said that the program would emphasize the need for fuel oil conservation.

Start Bonus Plan
In Brick Industry

Metropolitan Paving Brick Company, Bessemer; New Plan Effective Feb. 1, 1948

For the first time in the history of the brick industry in Lawrence county a bonus plan will be put into effect at the Metropolitan Paving Brick company, Bessemer, to be effective, as of February 1, 1948.

Roy Wallis, general superintendent met with John H. Grittle, district staff representative of United Steelworkers of America CIO, and both parties have agreed to the plan on a four-month trial basis.

Approximately 150 employees will be affected.

The bonus plan to be instituted will add money to the regular wage of the employee, and will be based on increased production by the individual employee.

A seven-hour day work is used as the base average of a normal output for an employee. Any increased or additional production over and above the seven-hour work will be considered in the bonus plan.

Success in operation of the bonus plan at the end of the four months will be determined on the assumption that a 20% or 25% increase is noted in the employees' "take home" pay. However, if both management and labor feel that the plan did not meet expectations, the plan may be eliminated within the period of that time.

Last year the company employees shared in the 15% profit plan—profit made for that year. Through a joint proposition of management and labor, it is agreed that the bonus plans will be more beneficial to the employees from the financial point of view. At any rate, the Metropolitan Paving Brick company employees will give the plan a four-month trial.

The CIO Union at the plant is Local 3043.

PHILADELPHIA FIRE
ROUTS 100 FAMILIES

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 24.—(INS)—More than 100 families were driven into the street in sub-zero weather today by fire in the Melrose Court apartments at York road and Willow avenue.

Residents fled from three buildings of the apartments as Cheltenham township firemen asked for assistance from Philadelphia companies. Police said no one was hurt in the evacuation.

SMOG PROBLEM

LOS ANGELES, (INS)—A Los Angeles county has started a comprehensive anti-smog program to insure residents getting full value from the California sunshine. An air pollution authority has been appointed with broad powers to enforce anti-smog regulations throughout the county as well as inside the city of Los Angeles. Los Angeles' soot and smoke problem is aggravated by fumes from industries outside city jurisdiction. Experts agree that smog control is most effective if tackled on a county-wide or regional basis.

SUPPOSE your water company took a few days off to catch up on its fishing.

• Life would be pretty hard for the people in town. Your plumbing would cease to function; you would have to haul your drinking water from the source of supply and purify it by boiling; baby would go without his bath.

• Your home life would be completely disrupted.

• That's why your water company never closes down, not even for a few minutes. Twenty-four hours a day, every day, it's on the job to keep your pure, good-tasting water supply flowing.

Reveal Support Of U. S. Expected For Defense Bloc

By KINGSBURY SMITH
(European General Manager International News Service)

PARIS, Jan. 24.—Authoritative diplomatic sources in Paris revealed today that the United States definitely is expected to cooperate closely with Britain and France in working out details for setting up a western European defense plan.

These sources said that when British Foreign Secretary Bevin made his historic declaration in London yesterday concerning formation of a grand military alliance of western European powers, he did so with assurances of American support.

Progress Made
Plans for this close American cooperation with Britain and France in building up an Atlantic defense bloc are understood to have progressed far beyond what has been publicly disclosed.

These plans reportedly have reached a point where consultations between American military planners on the one hand and the French and British on the other may soon be held at general staff level.

Consultations between French and British military leaders already are under way in London, where General Revers, chief of staff of the French army, has been for the past week.

Gen. Revers is scheduled to return to Paris within a few days. Reports are current in French military circles that shortly after the return of Gen. Revers high-ranking American army officers will arrive in Europe from Washington for private consultations.

It is no secret that the French general staff would like the United States to help equip 30 to 40 French divisions.

Edenburg Revival Series Continue

Rev. Alfred Payea, an outstanding evangelist of Rochester, N. Y., will continue his revival meetings which opened last Sunday in the Edenburg Methodist church.

Jack Cooper of Shamokin, Pa., is song leader for the campaign, with special music being presented nightly. Rev. Harry Johnston is pastor of the church.

Plans are under way for the outstanding dramatization of the famous theme "Ten Nights in a Bar Room" which will be presented by Rev. Payea on Friday evening, January 30.

Young Woman Suffers Fatal Auto Injuries

CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., Jan. 24.—(INS)—Miss Anna Grace Molinaro, 24, of Connelville, died in Connelville State hospital Friday of a skull fracture and other injuries suffered Wednesday when struck by an automobile.

She was waiting for a street car when the auto, which police said was driven by Floyd E. Fowler, 28, of Connelville, plowed into a group of about 20 women. Three others were injured in addition to Miss Molinaro.

Famous Rain-Maker Heading Today For Los Angeles, Calif.

Chief Tuxhai Will Attempt To Break Long Drought In Southern California

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 24.—(INS)—Los Angeles had better open its umbrellas. For rain-making Chief Tuxhai is on his way. The chief, hereditary head of the Wasco Indian tribe, is to leave Portland by plane later in the day to share some of Oregon's excess rain with parched southern California.

Takes His Umbrella
The official rain-maker of his tribe will be met with the pomp and ceremony befitting one who would save the lush orchards of the southland from a Sahara-like fate.

As for umbrellas, he declared confidently:
"I'm taking mine."

The 38-year-old chief, who had been advertised as "Chief Rain-in-the-Morning", goes under the common name of Clifford Meacham when he isn't making rain. His more authentic occupation is highway engineer in the Warm Springs Indian reservation.

Plan Welcome
Publicity-wise chamber of commerce spokesmen said Don A. Allen, a part-Indian Los Angeles alderman, will supply the official welcome at the California city.

Then, while a cowboy orchestra supplies the savage music, Chief Tuxhai will put on the traditional dance intended to break the drought.

The chief explained:
"It's not really a rain dance. It's a means of drawing the coyote god's attention. Then I just tell him how much rain is required. There's really nothing much to it."

Annual Fruit Day Program Will Be Held On Tuesday

Commercial Growers Of Lawrence

Lawrence County Fruit Growers will hold their annual meeting in the Y.M.C.A. on Tuesday, with an all day program being arranged.

The session will open at 10:30 o'clock, and will continue through the afternoon, with intermission for lunch.

The speakers will include J. A. Ruef, A. H. Bauer and Henry Menusan, of Penn State College, who will discuss subjects of interest to the commercial fruit growers.

State Flood Control Commission To Meet

HARRISBURG, Jan. 24.—(INS)—The newly appointed state flood control commission will hold its initial meeting at the state capital February 4. It was announced today by Secretary of Forests and Waters M. F. Draemel.

Chairman of the 12-man commission, he explained the meeting was scheduled principally for organizational purposes. However, the group will take into preliminary consideration its duties under legislation by the 1947 General Assembly which created the commission, he said.

The legislature assigned the commission to study causes and methods of controlling floods under a $1,000,000 program established in the department of forests and waters.

The commission is composed of four state senators, four representatives and four citizens appointed by Gov. James H. Duff.

Shenango 'Y' Workers Make Report Sunday

The first official report of the division leaders, captains and workers of the current membership drive of the Shenango Branch Y will be given at a meeting Sunday, Jan. 25 at 3:30 p. m.

Plans of the drive are to see that every card is renewed first and then work on new members. Sunday's meeting will serve as a clearing for this plan in that any one who has been missed will be checked again. The goal of the Branch this year is 350 members, an increase over last year.

Harry Carter, chairman of the drive, has been checking with the division leaders and all prospect cards are out and being covered.

Junior members of the Branch are being contacted by the Sr. Hi-Y boys of the Branch. Many persons have expressed the desire to sponsor memberships at the Branch for needy boys. This is a most helpful expression as there are many families with several small boys eligible for membership. It is the hope of the membership committee that the greater part of the drive will have been completed in this first week of the campaign, which will leave next week for clean-up and new members. The meeting Sunday is open to the public and any one may renew his membership at that time if desirable.

Years Given Plaque

Thomas L. Morgan, of 906 Wilmington avenue, has been made a life member of the Bricklayers, Masons, and Plasterers International Union of America.

Thursday evening a gold plaque for continuous membership for 50 years was presented to him at his home by Howard Lightner. Mr. Morgan is believed to be the only member in Lawrence county to hold such a life membership.

The small gold plaque, about 2 1/2 inches square, is inscribed "This is to certify that the Bricklayers, Masons, and Plasterers International Union of America has duly conferred life membership upon Thomas L. Morgan, who has held membership in this International Union for 50 consecutive years." It is signed by Harry L. Bates, president, and R. J. Gray, secretary.

Stealing Water In Philadelphia
PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 24.—(INS)—The city department of health disclosed today that people are stealing—of all things—Philadelphia water.

The notorious city drinking water, labelled "chlorine cocktail", "Schuykill Punch" and a host of other not so pretty names, is being pilfered in large quantities, says Robert O. Bowen, plumbing supervisor. He said many instances are being discovered where water lines of unmetered homes have been "tapped" to divert water through hoses to houses which are metered. In Philadelphia, some homes have meters, while other home owners pay taxes according to the number of faucets in the house. Melting will make dried-up shoe polish in tins serviceable again.

CANADA WHEAT PRICES
Canada has no organized wheat futures market and, therefore, none of the "gambling" that President Truman blames for the high wheat market prices. The official Canadian wheat board has just established a price of $3.28 a bushel, which is higher than the "gambling" price in this country. So what?—South Bend Tribune.

Policeman Sues Burglar's Estate

Asks $14,407 For Injuries Received In Battle With Burglar Last August

OTHER EVENTS IN COURT HOUSE

In a suit filed in the office of Prothonotary and Clerk of Courts John A. Edgar, City Policeman George I. Price asks $14,407 damages from the estate of the late John William Dawson. The suit is directed at the administrator of the estate, Attorney J. Elder Bryan.

Dawson was shot to death by Price in a battle on a roof top of the Household Finance Co. in the rear of Washington street July 26, 1947. A city employee heard suspicious noises in the early evening and reported it to the police.

Policeman D. J. Thomas arrived first and engaged Dawson. Dawson broke several of Thomas' fingers in the fight when Price arrived. Dawson had an iron bar in his hand with which he felled Price and attempted to roll him off the roof. Despite his injuries Price pulled his gun and fired, wounding Dawson fatally. Dawson died August 1, 1947.

Price received a fractured skull, a concussion of the brain, an injury to an eye and the head. He was in the hospital for a long time and the hospital and medical bill already amounts to almost $1000.

When Dawson was removed to the hospital it developed he had a bank account of around $10,000. He had been out of the penitentiary for but a short time and according to police officers admitted to having committed a number of robberies but refused to say where they were. In his will he left nothing to a daughter now in the state of Washington, and left his estate to a lady friend. His wife and him had been divorced for some time.

COMMISSIONERS REJECT ACT

By unanimous vote the county commissioners on Friday elected to not take advantage of the recent act of the General Assembly setting up a delinquent tax bureau. Two reasons were advanced for the rejection of the provisions of the act. First, setting up the bureau would entail considerable expense. Second, the commissioners believe the law is vicious in that it removes the two-year redemption period for taxpayers who have lost their properties through delinquent sales.

There was complete unanimity among the three commissioners. If the law can be changed in several respects the commissioners may consider a bureau at a later date.

JAMES A. CHAMBERS

James A. Chambers, former judge of Lawrence county and at present a practicing attorney with his offices in the Lawrence Savings and Trust building, is one of this locality's true native sons.

Having spent his entire life in and around New Castle.

James Chambers was born in East Brook, Jan. 27, 1877, the son of Joseph and Christine Chambers. His father was a stonemason and a veteran of the Civil War, being of the few who received the Congressional Medal of Honor in that conflict.

Young James went to elementary school in the county and then entered Volant Academy, a school that prepared many of our future lawyers. He matriculated at Westminster college commuting to the institution and working with his father at the stonemason trade at the same time. He was graduated in 1900.

Studied Law

As was the practice in those days, Mr. Chambers was taken under the wing of an established member of the profession and began reading law with former Judge Aaron L. Hazen. His apprenticeship ended when he was admitted to the bar in 1903.

In 1906 he married Grace Elder and is the father of four children. Two died in infancy, and Philip was a victim of drowning at the age of 23. James, Jr., is an attorney and shares his father's offices in the city.

Attorney Chambers took his seat as judge in October, 1927 and was forced to retire from the bench in December of 1937 when he was stricken with appendicitis. Thomas Dickey finished his term in office.

Great Athlete

Flanked by his books in the summer confines of his office, Mr. Chambers carries the stamp of his profession in his appearance and every mannerism, but he would much rather dwell upon his accomplishments as an athlete than those he has made in the field of law.

At Westminster he was one of the greatest athletes ever produced at the college, excelling in baseball and football. Even after his graduation at New Wilmington he continued in the diamond sport, playing independent ball in the county. As an outfielder with the lawyer team of the old Twilight League of the city, he has been remembered for the prodigious home run he hit at Cascade Park, a clout that cleared the center field wall—one of the few who ever performed this feat.

"I remember my last appearance in a game," he said, with a twinkle in his eye. "I was asked to make a Memorial Day speech at Pulaski and it so happened that there was also a baseball game there that same afternoon as part of the program. I was asked if I would participate and I said I would if I didn't have to run the bases. After all, I was 50 years old at the time," he chuckled.

"As I recall I got a couple of hits in the game and made two or three put-outs in the outfield. But that was the end of my career."

Still Plays Golf

Mr. Chambers still frequents the golf courses during the hot months and shoots in the 80's. He is also fond of fishing and is a member of the Pennsylvania Fishing Club.

At one time he was a member of the Kiwanis and is an elder at the First U. P. church, where he also teaches a men's Bible club—having done so for the past 30 years.

He is an alumnus member of the Kappa Phi Lambda fraternity which was merged with the Sigma Nu, and holds an honorary L.L.D. from Westminster college.

John L. Morgan Dies In Aliquippa

On Thursday John L. Morgan of Aliquippa, 80, a former resident of this city, died at Sewickley Hospital, about 12 hours after suffering a skull fracture in a traffic accident.

While en route to high school graduation exercises, he was struck by an automobile. Funeral services will be conducted Saturday afternoon, at 1:30, at the Prosser Funeral Home, with interment in Woodlawn cemetery.

Before going to Aliquippa, the late Mr. Morgan had been employed as a roller, at the former Shenango Tinplant and was well known here.

HONEY PRODUCTION

HARRISBURG — Pennsylvania improved its position in honey production last year over 1946. W. W. Clarke, extension apiculturist of the Pennsylvania State College, reported at the annual meeting of the Pennsylvania Beekeepers' Association at the State Farm Show. Federal reports credited Pennsylvania with 195,000 colonies of bees compared to 181,000 in 1946, and a production of 6,825,000 pounds of honey compared with 5,068,000 pounds in 1946, and an average of 35 pounds of honey per colony in 1947 compared to 28 pounds in 1946.

RICE AND WHEAT

Rice and wheat are very much alike in some ways and very different in others.

The people of the world may be divided into two groups: the wheat eaters and the rice eaters.

The citizens of this country belong to the wheat eaters although they eat a lot of rice too.

The principal ingredient of these cereals is starch. In the process of digestion starch is changed to sugar. The body uses the sugar for heat and energy.

There are valuable minerals and vitamins in these grains. People seem to prefer white flour and white rice.

In the processing of the wheat and rice the vitamins are removed. When these vitamins are restored to the flour it is called enriched flour.

The flour looks and tastes just the same as before but makes better food.

High School Players To Present Show Friday Evening

Cast Is Preparing To Stage 'A Quiet Summer' At School Auditorium

With zero temperatures outside, Miss Hartsuff's class in dramatics has been working with unusual enthusiasm at the senior high school. Rehearsals for the school play, "A Quiet Summer," by Marjorie and Joseph Hayes, have reached the feverish levels of a week before the public performance, which is to take place next Friday evening in the school auditorium. This is the second in the series of three plays which the student-actors at the senior high school have planned for the public. The first was the senior class play, given during the fall term by a cast of seniors.

Have Leading Roles

The stellar roles will be played by Lillian Shelar, Georgianne Heidish, Robert Serwatka, and Esomor Krash, of whom Esomor is the only brand new talent. The three girls all have appeared importantly in other high school dramatic ventures. "Quiet Summer" is a swiftly-moving comedy of the unsolicited and decidedly unwanted program of excitement unloaded on a middle-aged bachelor through the visit of an uninhibited niece and nephew of high school age. The stage business of the plot is punctuated with honking automobiles, ringing of telephones, the groaning of a saxophone, the thumping of a typewriter, "sleek chicks" moving on and off, and the smoocheroia and hubba hubba of the slang in their conversation. Sedate Uncle James gets over his first bewilderment and exasperation, and the impact of generation on generation, as events turn out, is not without mutual benefit.

Cast Announced
The cast of "Quiet Summer" follows:
Pamela Young, Lillian Shelar, Helen Russell, Georgianne Heidish, Jeanie Day, Jackie Mitchell, Harriet Morgan, Donna Norris, Betty Morrison, Mary Alice Falls, Esther Hamilton, Audrey Blank, Mrs. Lillian Young, Virginia Lightner, Frederica Collins, Jane Throp, Frances Shaugnessy, Jo Ann Sargent, Carrie, Gerry Ginsburg, Mr. James Clark, Ish Krash, Sunny Young, Robert Houston Serwatka, Bill Henly, Dick McClurg, Mr. Leslie Gardner, Bill Bowen, Mr. Clifford Young, Bob Bender, Tubby Pitts, Paul Cuba, Tony, Don Frediani, Mr. Henry Morgan, Joe MacKenzie.

Rescues Dog In Neshannock Creek

City Employee, Fully-Clothed, Wades Waist Deep To Save Small Puppy

Frank Cowperthwaite, employee of the city mechanic's department, which is located in Croton avenue, today saved the life of a puppy dog which was in danger of drowning in the Neshannock creek. After being rescued the dog scampered home—wherever that is. Cowperthwaite saw the dog on floating ice in the middle of the creek. The ice cracked, then broke, and the dog would leap on another cake. Realizing the dog was certain to drown, Cowperthwaite fully clothed walked into the creek and waded waist-deep into the icy stream and caught hold of the puppy. He then walked to the west side, or Neshannock avenue side of the creek. He put the dog down, whereupon it scampered homeward. "Gee, that water was cold," Cowperthwaite told fellow employees.

West Side Gra-Y Boys Have Show

Boxing Matches Held In School Building Attract Much Interest From Parents, Students

Gra-Y Boys Club of the West Side school presented a boxing show in the school auditorium on Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Seven interesting bouts were arranged with the fights running from featherweights at 50 pounds to heavyweights, boys over 100 pounds. The fights proved most interesting to both pupils and parents who attended. Students cheered wildly as their favorite boxers scored important blows. Most of the young fighters had previous training in the sport and gave good demonstrations. Several of the bouts were very closely contested and hard fought. Boxing is now a part of the physical education course of study for the elementary schools of New Castle.

Tommy Whiteford, president of Gra-Y made a few opening remarks about the event being sponsored by Gra-Y and then introduced the judges, Bob Schweikert and Clair Montgomery; timekeeper, Marvin Williams; announcer, Sam DeMatteo and referee, Glenn McCracken. The fight results are as follows: Ted Jackson, a 53 pounder, won over Ralph Perkins, 50 pounds; James McLaren, 70 pounds, over Mike Lenn, 65 pounds; Charles Rigby, 76 pounds, and Clarence Russell, 75 pounds, fought to a draw; Richard Cox, 94 pounds, over Bob McMichael, 100 pounds; James Boyd, 100 pounds, over John Davis, 100 pounds; Blaine Smith, 90 pounds, over Richard Kerr, 117 pounds and Willard Smith, 113 pounds over Charles Cox, 113 pounds. Miss Betty Brown is faculty sponsor of the Gra-Y club.

Man Admits He Killed Third Wife

Police Now Probing Mystery Surrounding Death Of His Second Wife

BREMERTON, Wash., Jan. 24.—(INS)—Kitap, county sheriff's deputies attempted today to pierce the mystery surrounding the disappearance of the second wife of Roscoe Lee Hayton, 62, who admitted yesterday the strange murder of his third wife. Hayton led King county detectives to the road-side grave of Ellen Buckingham Coyle Hayton, 46, his third wife, yesterday afternoon. He was returned to Seattle last night after officers had unearthed the woman's nude body stuffed in a navy sea bag. Hayton showed no emotion as he almost carelessly pointed out the shallow leaf-covered grave at the foot of a cedar tree which contained the weather-wasted remains of his third wife.

War Equipment Stolen By Arabs

JERUSALEM, Jan. 24.—(INS)—A party of armed Arabs broke into the Marshall yards at Lydda and made off with a quantity of military equipment early this morning. They overpowered guards at the yards and managed to steal the supplies before they were engaged by British police. Authorities reported that a 21-year-old Jew named Abraham Hausman, grandson of a former chief rabbi of Jerusalem, was shot dead when he attempted to steal arms from a party of British soldiers sitting in a Rehovoth cafe. Hausman was described as a Haganah organizer and a member of an ultra-orthodox theological student group.

TAX CAMPAIGN STARTS MONDAY

Plainclothesmen To Serve Demand For Payment Of Occupational Tax

Two plainclothesmen from the police department on Monday will begin serving demands upon delinquents for payment of their occupational tax for the years 1944, 1945 and 1946. According to reports, there have been some payments since council decided to enforce payment, either by demand, levy, and if necessary, by arrest. The notice to be served reads that "if you shall neglect or refuse to make payment of the amount due (for occupational tax) by you for such taxes within 30 days from the time this demand is made, it shall be the duty of the tax collector of the city to levy such amount by distress, and sale of your goods and chattels after distress thereon, and 10 days public notice of such sale by written or printed advertisements." "In case goods and chattels owned by you, sufficient to satisfy the said taxes with costs, can not be found, the tax collector shall be authorized to arrest and convey you to the Lawrence county jail, there to remain until the taxes, with costs, shall be paid, secured to be paid, or until you shall be otherwise discharged by due course of law."

According to an attache of city hall, there are a large number of persons who have not paid their occupational tax, some owing as much as three years.

The Great Auk, now extinct, was an inhabitant of the north Atlantic coasts as far north as the Hebrides and the Gulf of Newfoundland. It was as large as a goose, and black and white in colors.

TAKES FRENCH LEAVE

PARIS, (INS)—Yvon Petra, 1946 holder of the men's Wimbledon tennis title and star French Davis Cup player, deserted the amateur ranks recently to accept two professional offers in Belgium. The tall, lanky Frenchman, who ranks as one of France's all-time tennis champions, has signed a contract with a Belgian sporting goods firm to endorse what will be called the "Petra racquet." He has also agreed to aid in training the Belgian Davis Cup team.

Stage And Screen Actress Took
Overdose Of Sleeping Pills
In Hotel Room

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 24.—(INS)—Stage and screen actress Kay Francis was reported steadily improving today from the effects of an overdose of sleeping pills taken early yesterday in her Columbus hotel room.

White Cross hospital authorities said that Miss Francis, who had been appearing in the stage play, "The State of the Union," was removed from an oxygen tent in which she was placed when it was feared her condition might lead to pneumonia.

Burns on the legs which the tall, dark-haired actress suffered when she fell against a hot radiator in her hotel room were described as "superficial" by her physician, Dr. Maurice B. Rusoff.

Miss Francis became suddenly ill, according to Columbus detectives who questioned her, after she accidentally took more sleeping pills than normally.

Realizing Mistake
Realizing her mistake, Miss Francis phoned her stage manager, Howard Graham, who hurried to her room. While assisting Miss Francis in her attempt to walk off the effects of the pills, Graham told police that she fell against the radiator and was burned on the legs.

Graham went to the hospital with the actress and was detained by police for several hours while they checked his story. Graham's account was verified by Dr. Rusoff and Miss Francis and he was released.

Meanwhile, the show in which Miss Francis was appearing went on last night in the Hartman Theatre. An understudy, Erin O'Brien-Moore, flew in from Washington D. C., to assume the starring role.

State Farmers Are Dubious Of High
Production YearBy JACK WARD
International News Service
Pennsylvania Farm Editor

HARRISBURG, Jan. 24.—State farm leaders generally are pessimistic about maintaining high post-war food production during 1948, the Pennsylvania production and marketing committee reports.

At the annual crop goals conference, held in Harrisburg coincident with the state farm show, agricultural leaders expressed desire to maintain production as high as that of 1947, but feared weather, scarcities of farm labor and materials, and high costs will have serious effects.

"Farmers have had so many good seasons during the past few years that they are afraid their luck can't last," a committee spokesman said. "They feel that it requires a lot of careful planning to keep production up to 1947 figures."

Poultry growers reportedly were the least optimistic group because of poor market prices and the national grain feed conservation program. Poultrymen recommended a five per cent reduction in the number of laying hens and a 25 per cent cut in broilers.

Dairy and beef cattle growers "will make every effort to maintain production at 1947 levels," the spokesman said.

Dairymen will aim for a five and a half billion pound milk goal despite feed scarcities.

However, the same difficulty may compel beef raisers to reduce the number of cattle for breeding purposes.

To help meet the grain shortage, farmers will plan 1,437,000 acres of corn, five per cent over the 1947 acreage. Oats will total 836,000 acres, a 10 per cent boost, and one of the largest harvests of winter wheat will come from 994,000 acres.

Barley and buckwheat will decline 10 per cent over last year's acreage while rye will drop 14 per cent, according to the committee.

Hay production will jump four per cent to 2,545,000 acres scheduled for planting.

The commercial potato crop will total 74,700 acres under the crop goal plan, slightly in excess of 1947 plantings but less than last year's goal.

Vegetable growers will attempt to equal 1947 production but feared fluctuating prices will hold down crops. Growers of vegetables for processing were warned to produce only enough to meet contracts.

APPROVE APPEARANCE AND CONSERVE CLOTHING

Have you resolved to take care of your clothes to insure a better appearance and at the same time conserve clothing? Instead of dropping clothes on the floor or hanging them on the back of the chair, take time to hang them up properly. They will keep their shape better and be more presentable. Frequent brushing and airing will prolong the life of wool garments. Brushing removes dirt and dust and helps to restore the nap.

Check regularly for loose fasteners. Sewing on buttons before you lose them will save the price of a new set. Conserve hose by careful washing and mending. Mend runs before they get too big, and it is easier to reinforce thin spots in heels and toes than it is to darn a hole.

Foundation garments need particular attention. Stretch as little as possible during washing and use mild soap and lukewarm water. Rinse as many times as necessary in clear water to remove all trace of soap. Dry in a cool well-ventilated place away from heat and sunlight. You can speed up drying if you roll the garment in a turkish towel, knead out the moisture, then hand it to dry.

Washable gloves are best washed before they become too soiled. Shoes always are more presentable if they are cleaned and brushed or polished frequently. Worn down heels should be repaired before the shape of the shoe is ruined.

Let us resolve to take better care of our clothing this new year.

LESS MEAT THIS YEAR

HARRISBURG — Ten pounds less meat per person this year than last was predicted at a meeting of members of seven state swine

Kramer Assumes Lead Over Riggs

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 24.—(INS)—World Amateur Tennis King Jack Kramer, fast acclimating himself to the play-for-pay game, pulled ahead of pro Champion Bobby Riggs 10 games to 9 today in their tourney for the richest pot of gold in net history. Playing the most sensational match of their current tour, the two champions staged a sizzling one hour and 50-minute clash which the lanky Californian finally captured by the gruelling score of 15-13, 2-6, 7-5. The score itself gives a vivid picture of the match witnessed by 6,218 breathless fans who poured $13,772 through the turnstiles of the Philadelphia Arena. The final tally shows statistically how the net artists battled fiercely in the tension-packed 58-minute first set which went 28 games, with Riggs, the little retriever, being beaten at his own game.

LOWER TREND IN STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—(INS)—Stocks drifted lower today in the slowest Saturday session in months. Volume totaled little more than 200,000 shares. Price changes were generally fractional with the majority of leaders off a bit.

Commodities were reactionary. Losses in cotton ran to more than $1 a bale.

Motor equities were firm and dull. Republic Steel and Bethlehem were steady but U. S. Steel eased. Illinois Central and Southern Pacific improved narrowly in the quiet, mixed rail section. International Telephone led from the volume standpoint and picked up nearly a point.

Food, farm equipments and liquors were irregular. Oils and utilities rested around last night's close.

Bonds and curb shares were virtually unchanged in routine trading.

Local Residents Warned To Ignore Any Appeals From Purported Prisoner in Distress

Attention of local residents is called to the fact that the old "Spanish Swindle" game is making its appearance again in this country, and warns them against letting their emotions getting the better of their good judgement.

The victim gets a letter through the mail stating that the writer is imprisoned for debt or bankruptcy, has deposited in the United States, a large sum of money which is being held in a U. S. Customs House, awaiting his arrival in the country.

All the prisoner asks is that the victim in this country come and pay the expenses necessary to procure his release, after which he will give the victim one-third of the money, which is in good old U. S. currency.

Anyone here receiving such a letter is advised to either ignore the matter entirely, or to bring it to the Post Office, by Postmaster William R. Hanna.
